NARRATIVE:

Quesada, a documented member of the "43rd Avenues" street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21 and includes robbery, burglary, petty theft w/priors, inflict corporal injury on spouse/cohabitant, grand theft, receive known stolen property, possession of controlled substance, possession of narcotics, parole violations, and violation of supervised release. Quesada has served five prison terms, the longest being four years for possession of controlled substance. He was released most recently, after serving a two year prison term, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 08/21/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Quesada absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Quesada qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for grand theft is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. This is Quesada's second grant on post release community supervision. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
